

157. ✓ The green bloomer suits are now a memory. Did you press yours on the side of a canoe as it dried. Ruby dropped in from Canoe Lake to say hello.
158. At Shadow Lake Camp where many MES grads migrated, we were not so fussy about camp wear.
159. Councillors there were active. Eleanor Keys and Pauline Sellars do a leap frog act.
160. But Eleanor really preferred golf.
161. Elva Miller, Glad Baker and Pauline Sellers relax after serving a picnic supper.
162. ✓ Some MES students, had no time to finish their courses, such as Louise Bertram who eyed the Olympics of 1936.
163. She represented Canada in the pairs, with Stewart Reybourn.
164. They introduced modern rhythm, special jumps and skid stops, all of which are used to-day.
164. This natty chaperone went for the trip too.
166. Vic Torrington of '26 achieved success as a Power model in New York, and became known as the perfect turbin type.
167. Having married well, she enjoyed Muskoka, and MES friends until her untimely death.
168. Ruby Moss, once Pres of the Studio Club N.Y. sang on WABC Cathedral Hour while studying music. She recently retired as USA Nat Dir. of the Soc for the prevention of Blindness.
169. Agnes Moffat '25 was honoured, when given Life membership in the ^{Ontario} ~~Can~~ Womens Medical Association, and had served with distinction during her term as President. ^{of the} ~~Federation of medical women of Canada.~~ ^{dictated by Karsh}
- ✓ 170. Margaret Eaton, holding the School name, became head of the Can. Womens Army Corp and later married Dr Hubert Dunn. Living in England, it was only her husbands severe illness prevented her joining us to-night. ^{Both now deceased.}
171. ✓ How about our Mary as a Can army officer. She also took part in Telescope 69, during the N. Scotia film shown a number of times on T.V.

Dora Mavor Moore 9. Mother of Mavor Moore News writer et was a long time Drama Coach at Eaton Club.

172. We usually got together for a Hello Good-by.

173. Went overseas for St John Brigade, at a very busy time.

17 ✓ Happened to billeted in London at the same house
as Ede McKenzie.

174. Met Jessie McFarlane & her husband in Halifax. Dropped in to do my laundry, before sailing. Friends are handy!

175. The Eaton Girls Club stayed on in the building, when MES moved in to the University of Toronto.

176. ✓ The rooms were still attractive & homey.

177. ✓ The fireplaces with their porcelaine tiles had great charm.

178. Their wrought iron framework provided warmth and soft fire light for many cold winter evenings. It couldn't last.

179. ✓ Rumours quickly spread that Yonge St wanted our space.

180. And the leaking building with it's creaky wooden stairways, was doomed.

181. ✓ Outside Miss Laytons office, even the garbage pails stood guard as if to ward off the first blow.

182. ✓ The old MES office soon became a victim.

183. ✓ The lounge was dismantled.

184. ✓ The inner office looked forlorn.

185. ✓ And piles of oddments huddled together.

186. ✓ Only Mona Lisa ^{picture} seemed to survive.

187. ✓ We viewed the tragic old building - about to bow to Teppermans hammer.

188. ✓ It looked positively haggard as the scaffold was put in place.

189. ✓ The wreckers pounded her daily.

190. ✓ The theatre area vanished - as had the "Happy Gang".

191. ✓ The gymnasium groaned under it all.

192. Then went down bowing gracefully.

193. ✓ In a stately pile of rubble!!!!

194. ✓ The sunsets will always be remembered from 415 Yonge St.

195. Ham's spirit of M&S days lingers on Always when we hear:

196. Day is done, - gone the sun

197. From the lake, - from the hills, - from the sky,

198. All is well, - safely rest,

199. God is nigh

200. ✓ The End.
